

Dispute Resolution

MAXIMIZING VALUE THROUGH KNOWLEDGE™

Understanding the nature and value of the assets involved in a dispute, as well as potential gains and losses, is critical to your and your advisors' ability to make informed, sound decisions throughout the dispute resolution process.

We integrate our cross-functional expertise in finance, accounting and economics into our independent conclusions so that they can help you make informed decisions and, where required, are sustainable in an adversarial legal proceeding.

Whether you need hourly forensics consultation on a specific matter, assistance in deciding whether to pursue litigation or accept a settlement, a formal written report or expert witness testimony, we follow professional standards of due care, competence, objectivity, and independence. We work with clients, attorneys, and your other advisors in identifying the most efficient and cost-effective ways to manage our clients' disputes.
